Campbelltown Catholic Club voted one of Australia's best in 2009 PCA Awards

Campbelltown Catholic Club has achieved a Highly Commended Award in the Mixed Use Development category at the 2009 Property Council of Australia Rider Levett Bucknall Awards for Innovation and Excellence.

The development took out the prestigious award against a strong field of competitors at the gala event held at Sydney's Convention and Exhibition Centre over the weekend.

Mr Stephen Mee, Director of Rider Levett Bucknall Sydney said that they feel privileged to be involved in this extremely successful and diverse mixed use project, which is now home to the latest conference, exhibition and entertainment facility is set to cater to the needs of the Macarthur Community and beyond.

Property Council of Australia National President Daniel Grollo said the Campbelltown Catholic Club is a pioneer in mixed use development, offering five-star facilities through innovation and chic design that reaches beyond the needs of its guests.

"Already with a long list of awards, this project exemplifies the new generation of high quality club redevelopments," Mr Grollo said.

"Patrons of the Campbelltown Catholic Club can benefit from a number of facilities including restaurants and various leisure facilities."

Mr Grollo said the awards showcase the finest development projects from around the country and distinguish industry projects that demonstrate innovative practice and design, from large-scale multi-million dollar developments to individuals making an impact within the industry.

"This year's highly commended winners, including The Campbelltown Catholic Club, continue to raise the bar for the industry in setting new benchmarks in excellence, particularly in the area of innovative design and practice," Mr Grollo said.
